PERSONAL STATEMENT

My interest in education and foreign languages dates back to my school years where I excelled in organizing different parties, concerts and discussions for primary classes. During the years at Primary School Teachers' Training College I participated in pedagogical conferences in St. Petersburg and received a few rewards for my reports.

When I began my studies at St. Petersburg Primary School Teachers' Training College, I had the opportunity to be exposed to the full range of methodical courses, all of which tended to reinforce and enhance my intense interest in education. But rather soon I realized that education is too wide a subject and I had to choose a specific field to deal with. I have always been strong in English and German. So I came to methods of language teaching.

Since I was in my second year of study, I have been studying with my teacher, Mrs Krylova, intensive methods of language teaching. In my course paper I am adopting these numerous methods for the primary and secondary education.

Now my interest has shifted to multi-lingual education, which would serve an excellent base for wider literary education at all levels. Such an idea has recently been discussed, but there are still no standard programmes to realize it. It is very interesting and responsible to create these sort of programmes for schoolchildren. I am sure that they could develop their linguistic abilities and widen their knowledge of foreign literature.
