The Second World War was one of the most terrific events on Earth. More than 60 countries took part in it. Russian men and women protected their territories and bravely fought against the German Empire. A lot of civilians and soldiers were killed in these tough years. Every Russian family remembers those events and has a hero. I have a hero in my family too.

Luchin Nikolay Georgievich was my great-grandfather who took part in that massive war. He was drafted into the Red Army when he was only 18. He served as a signalman, a gunman and a tank reconnaissance engineer. Also, he took part in the Battle of Kursk in 1943. Moreover, on the 10th of September in 1943 he was wounded near The River Desna. He was hospitalized. Moreover, the Russian Red Army won that battle. After his treatment in Vologdas hospital, he was aimed at Leningrad Front.
